

all as well as usual and I quit from the outreaching work which has been started in the Church in the house of the Elders. that it means that you too are improving in health - I do not wonder the melancholy man stayed long in your family circle - when I remember the lengthy visits I used to pass at your house, perfectly regardless of time and your many occupations -

Clara L. Johnson

My dear Mr. Elders:

Your delightful letter with its March Greeting of the Endeavor Society has just reached me and I appreciate the privilege of hearing from you again as I do all your letters.
From your silence in regard to the health question I hope I am right in inferring that you are

Bristol
Feb. 20th

I thank you very much for my thoughtlessness as much as I enjoy the recollection of the visits your family circle represents an ideal state to me.

I am not as closely connected with the Endeavor Society as of old - as I am more needed in the home field on Sunday afternoons, but I still have the childrens missionary meeting every three months. but the Junior Society has changed in its personnel - and most of the girls friends are now in the Senior Society. I will enclose the yearly report thinking you may be interested.

Mrs Dunbar and Mrs Richardson have both asked for you lately and sent their kindest remembrances. Mrs R. saying that your name and his mothers had so long been associated in her prayers. that she found herself after connecting