

much of your precious time - we all felt as if we had had a talk with you and she moved that a rising vote of thanks be taken & expressed to you the loving appreciation of the ladies. Everybody hopped up without hardly waiting for the motion to be put and I was instructed to convey to you the thanks of the Society.
It added very much to an interesting meeting.

My dearest Mrs. Pelden:
Your delightful
letter to the Winnipeg Society was very highly appreciated and enjoyed.
Mrs. Richardson expressed the feeling of all the ladies in saying that she thought it was very kind of you to remember us so affectionately and more than kind of you to give us so items of missionary intelligence and Mrs. Proctor had a paper on the missionary work of Father Endeavor Clarke.

I am always glad of a chance to have the ladies instructed in the work of the Endeavor Society for it always seems as if they looked upon the Society as a sort of manager.

I personally, was so glad to hear of the many pleasant things you have always at hand at Clifton.
The atmosphere must be a very congenial one and I rejoice that you can be there. But wish I could send you a magic box of strength and leisure so you could enjoy it more.

I am glad to hear of Mr. Root for she leads to busy a life to write often and I think finds more leisure in India than at home.

My dear family are not much better. Mother continues to have her awful sick headaches every week. and Fannie seems more feeble than ever. but still I expect to hear them in two days and run down to Wilmington for a glimpse of my friends there this week.

Mr Goddard has just died and it will seem strange indeed not to

I am not at church
today which is somewhat that I hardly know what to make of it and turn to you and Mr Belden for a spiritual uplift. but we are having quite a snow storm. and the condition of the roads is almost impassible not from snow drifts but
mud. it seems pitiful to see the poor violets and crocuses peeping out of the snow.

see her in Church for we have sat in the same seat together for years.
You remember her do you not?

We are interested in starting a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and I am quite sure you that just now. I think we need to be enthused a little on the heroism of our Ancestors.

I have a dull head today and cannot write a bright letter but it carries much love and thanks to you dear friend - as well as special messages of love to your dear ones.

Please tell the girls that Hilda and Edie & Mabel and Inellie Hillard were at Berthas the other day and I showed them their picture. all thought it very good. They were planning to take some oranges to Aunties Seales who has been sick.

Good bye for the present dear friend
Yours fondly
Clara L. Pomeroy
