Dear Mr. Belden,

Your letter containing names for Miss. Review and check, was received and has been forwarded. Have you not any club in your ch.?
Why our little best ch. sent eight names out of a club of twelve. excuse me for laughing just a little.

Two or three have dropped "Church at Home" and taken this.

I must tell you what a stupid thing they did in N. Y. I sent eleven names and Mrs. Shoemaker ordered two copies, making eighteen dollars. They sent back the list saying I was entitled to one more name as there was only eleven, at 1.50 each.

I replied "if you will go over that list again you will see 2 copies" written after one of the names, which I supposed counted for another subscriber.
I did think it very stupid for such a concern as the Miss. Review:

Our Ladies Soc. is talking of having another union meeting in a few weeks similar to the one we had before.

I am glad to know I am remembered sometimes and missed. It would not be wise in me to tell you in what ways I miss you, but I do most emphatically, nevertheless I am very happy in all my ch. work, and have free access to the Parsonage where they always make me welcome. and we are the best of friends, I am very sorry to hear of Mrs. Belden's illness, and hope she is getting better all the time. Give her my love and tell her I am going to inflict another letter on her very soon if she will allow me.

Every time I see Miss Hamilton she says to be sure and give <sup>(plural)</sup> you her love when I write.

Ed is improving we think, all the time but he will have to take it slow & easy for some time yet.

Yours most sincerely
P. L. Hitchman

Miss Estlin
